The Longest Table Is Today!

Photo: Chris Drake

Today following the second service, students and guests are invited to join our church family on 4th Street for lunch. Many church members have sponsored tables and prepared meals in hopes of creating community and fellowship with you! Join us outside once the program is over; choose a spot along the more than 180 tables on 4th Street, and get to know your hosts! Prayer will be at 1:30pm.

Today's question:

*Is polarization in the church an asset
or a liability? Why?*

MUSIC NOTE

What a wonderful week we've witnessed as we wish returning and new students a warm Walla Walla welcome. Now may you feel the presence of God as we worship here together. Please join me in welcoming and thanking each member of University Singers who help us start the year with a joyful noise. We also thank two accompanists. Siena Mirasol, a freshman from Portland, Oregon plays piano, and Austin Mapa, a junior from Placerville, California provides percussion accompaniment on the djembe.

The Swahili phrase "sisi ni moja" means "We are one." The anthem of this title by Jacob Narverud (b.1986 in Meriden, Kansas) expounds this idea with a text that begins this way:

*We all laugh, we all cry,
we all feel hunger, we all feel pain.
We all love, we all hate,
we all hope, and we all dream.
We are one world, one people.
And we all breathe the same.*

Pilgrim Hymn is a traditional American hymn text popular in the mid-19th century. Some of this text is given here. As you prepare your heart to worship I invite you to silently meditate on these words or those of the hymns we will sing.

*My brethren, I have found a land that doth abound with fruit as sweet as honey;
The more I eat, I find the more I am inclined
To shout and sing hosanna.
My soul doth long to go where I may fully know
The glory of my Savior;
And as I pass along I'll sing the Christian song,
I'm going to live forever.*
