UNIVERSITY CHURCH

BULLETIN

DECEMBER 17, 2016

Three events one focus

The One project San Diego 2017

The One Project will be in San Diego February 24-27, 2017. Join Pastors Alex, Jenn, Paddy McCoy, and hundreds of others as they turn their focus to seeing Jesus in and through the book of Revelation.

This year, The One Project is made up of three events: "Resound Worship" on Friday, February 24, "The One Project Gathering" on Sabbath and Sunday, February 25-26, and the "Create Conference" on Monday, February 27. You may attend one, two, or all three of these events.

Visit theproject.org to register. The best rates are only available through December 31, 2016. Feel free to connect with any of our pastors or WWU chaplain for more information about this worthwhile event.

TOUCHES OF INTEREST

Words can't express the deep appreciation and love we feel for our church family. Thank you for being there for us and especially for the prayers. Your outpouring of love and kindness have made a sad time more bearable. With deep appreciation -- Dorita Tessier, Melissa & David Rae, Michelle & Ryan Werner

50-Plus Club potluck is Sunday, December 18, at 5pm in the Youth Center. Please bring a favorite vegetarian dish. Come enjoy a program by Roman and Linda Hintz.

The 7th annual Spiritual Care Symposium at Walla Walla General Hospital will be Friday, January 27, 8:30am to 4:30pm in the WWGH auditorium. Philip Watkins, PhD, and professor at Eastern Washington University, will share his presentation: "Gratitude: An Essential Foundation for Spiritual Well-being." Contact chaplain Jaci Cress at jaci.cress@ah.org to register.

The University Church Office will be closed on Monday, December 26 in observance of Christmas and Monday, January 2 in observance of New Years.

GIVE

Our local church budget continues to support K-12 schools Rogers and WWVA, WWU program logistics, children's ministries, worship services, a number of staff members' salaries, and maintaining our facility. Donations marked "tithe" support pastors' and teachers' salaries as well as the world church.

To give online, visit wwuchurch.com and click "give".

MUSIC NOTE

We thank several musicians today for sharing their beautiful music. Sam Derting is a graduate of the WWU music program and we are thrilled that he along with his wife, Jaimie, and daughter, Imogen, again live in the Walla Walla valley. Our guest organist is Richard Scott of the WWU Library, and joining him is his good friend Sarah Thomson, theatre arts teacher at College Place High School and director of children's ministries at Walla Walla Presbyterian Church. Sarah is a Walla Walla native and graduate of Wa-Hi. She also holds degrees from Whitworth University and Grand Canyon University. Please join me in welcoming and thanking all of these musicians.

As you prepare your heart to worship I invite you to silently meditate on the words of our hymns or the first anthem, "What Songs Were Sung," part of which are given here.

*We cannot tell,
we do not know,
what songs were sung
so long ago.
When Mary birthed her own sweet Son,
and peace and love
Became as one.*

-Kraig Scott
