Walla Walla is on the road to everywhere.

Beloved WWU graduates, not so long ago the trail of life brought you to the Walla Walla Valley. And now you move on: near, far, east, west, across land and over sea, wherever the Winds of the Spirit blow. We have been blessed that you stopped for a time, set up residence here, and lived as members of this local church. In this sacred space we have gathered: for chapel, for vespers, for Sabbath morning worship. And now, today, for one last time, we assemble with you as students in this House with the Steeple on the corner of Fourth and Bade, to acknowledge our God and His purposes in the world.

Wherever you wander, may God be with you.

-Alex Bryan, Senior Pastor

GIVE

Thank you for your generosity to the local ministry of the University Church, as well as to the global mission of the Adventist Church. Today, the loose offering goes toward the University Church budget. The following is a small sample of how this is allocated:

$1,057 per Sabbath to broadcast worship services on TV and online, providing access to SMs and families.

$12,534 per academic quarter for logistical support of WWU student events in the church facility.

$10,224 annually to our local partners: SonBridge, Star Project, Helpline, and Christian Aid Center.

WORSHIP NOTE

We wish a warm Walla Walla welcome to all of our visitors and thank you for helping us celebrate this graduation weekend. Please join me in congratulating the senior class and thanking two of them for sharing their music. Lindsay Armstrong is a voice major with a strong interest also in choral conducting. She previously graduated from Upper Columbia Academy. Brandan Patchett, a business major and music minor, comes from Auburn, California.

Ernest Shurtleff wrote our opening hymn on the occasion of his own graduation from Andover Theological Seminary in 1888. In the context of a graduation the words take on added significance. As you prepare to worship God in this beautiful place please take time to silently meditate on this inspiring text, some of which is given here:

*Lead on, O King Eternal,
The day of march has come;
Henceforth in fields of conquest
Thy tents shall be our home;*

*Through days of preparation
Thy grace has made us strong,
And now, O King Eternal,
We lift our battle song.*
